

PRESIDENT AT MADISON TODAY

Strenuous Chief Executive Delivers Two Speeches and Holds Receptions.

HE BEGAN AT NINE

Talked to Legislators and in the Open Air—Left for Milwaukee at Eleven.

(Special to The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., April 3.—President Roosevelt spent strenuous two hours here today, making two speeches and holding reception during the time he was in the hands of the public.

Roosevelt Rested Presidential train arrived 4 a. m. from Chicago, but president rested until nine when escorted by Governor La Follette and Mayor Groves met him on the train and conducted him to the capitol, where he gave address to members of the legislature and invited guests, in assembly chamber.

Good Citizenship President talked mainly on good citizenship. Talked on college education, which he said was a good thing if combined with common sense which is most important.

Public Talk Following this the president gave an outdoor talk to the public from the east entrance to the capitol in face of strong and chilly east wind, which made it impossible for all but a few to hear what he said.

The Reception Reception to the members of the legislature and state officers followed in the executive office, concluded in time for president to leave for Milwaukee at 11 o'clock, schedule time.

NICHOLSON IS TO TAKE THE AGENCY

Former Travelling Man Will Assume State Management of Central Life Assurance Co.

In the rooms on the second floor of the Jackson block, now devoted to the purposes of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, under the management of W. F. McCauley, are to be located the offices of the Gldeons and of the state branch of the Central Life Insurance Society of the United States. John H. Nicholson of this city, the well known national secretary of the Gldeons, and the jovial travelling man for a large Chicago paper house, is to occupy the offices, devoting his immediate attention to the state agency of the Central company.

Mr. Nicholson has secured the services of his nephew, Gale Nicholson, to cover the Southern Wisconsin territory, which he has himself traveled for the past nine years, in the service of a Chicago paper concern, gaining new friends daily and working a magnificent business for the firm he has represented. Gale Nicholson will take up the work at once in his uncle's place, and undertake the work with the latter's oversight for the present.

Gideon Headquarters Here For some time Mr. Nicholson has proposed removing to Chicago, taking the headquarters of the Gldeons with him, but with his recent decision, not only will he remain in this city, but he has secured for Janesville the agency for the state of the Central company.

To conduct the business required in his position as national secretary of the Gldeons, Mr. Nicholson will employ a clerical force sufficiently large to enable him to remain free to attend to the duties which will be placed upon him as state agent of the insurance company.

State Offices of Company For some time past the Central Life Assurance company has been looking about for a suitable place to locate their main offices for this state. The company is distinctly a western company and is one of the old time insurance organizations, under the Iowa estate law, with central offices at Des Moines. George B. Peak, the president of the company was in the city yesterday, looking over the ground, and was more than pleased with the city and the new agent.

J. P. Stake, superintendent of agents and E. E. Knoedy, agency director of the company, have been here for several days past, and will remain here long enough to firmly establish the business of the company, which is being brought into this state in thoroughly organized form, for the first time. The charter was secured toward the last of last year, but the privileges granted at that time have not been made use of until now.

To Begin at Once Mr. Nicholson will enter upon his new duties immediately. The entire state work will be under his able supervision. Agents are yet to be appointed for the entire state, and there is a mass of work of organization before the three men who will labor together for the time being.

Knoedy, the agency director, is, by the way, the man who gained recognition and a bad leg for himself not long ago by a headlong plunge down the elevator shaft of the Myers house. He is transacting his business at present supported by a pair of crutches.

NEW ARC LIGHTS ARE BEING TRIED

Differ from the Old Ones—Are Much Better, and Give More Light.

The Janesville Electric company tested a number of new lights to be hung on the streets last evening and were well satisfied with them. Twenty-six lights were examined and as many as possible of them will be placed in position today on West Milwaukee street and the streets leading from it and given a practical test.

The lights are called the Series Alternating Incandescent lamp. They are somewhat smaller than the ones now in use but give a more powerful light. The lights are enclosed in a frosted globe with a plain globe outside and have a twenty-four-inch reflector. It takes more power to run these lights but they are correspondingly brighter. The carbons are regulated to last about one hundred hours and will not need to be changed over once a week. After the lights have been in operation a day or two and are found to be all right the city lighting committee will make an inspection of them and if they are all right the company will ask to have their contract with the city so changed that the new lights can be substituted for the ones now in use.

BRODHEAD HAS A BAD BLAZE

Much Damage Was Done by Fire in That City Early This Morning.

(Special to The Gazette.) Brodhead, April 3.—Fire this morning was discovered in the rear of the building occupied by Brandt and McCaffrey's restaurant shortly after one o'clock. So rapidly did it spread that before aid could be summoned it had set fire to the implement house of J. S. Series and son and from thence had communicated with the store of Doolittle and Dixon. This building is a three-story brick structure and is occupied on the second floor by the Brodhead Independent and the third floor by the Eastern Star lodge rooms. This building was saved although much damage was done by water. The restaurant and implement house were a total wreck.

Shot in Row The shooting was the direct result of labor difficulties between two rival lodges of the metal workers and occurred at 124 South Clark street, the headquarters of the association.

Genuine Plot It has developed this was part of a plot to kill all the officers of the union and that it started with Castleman. Castleman came here from Cleveland three months ago to settle up differences that existed between different lodges of the order.

The consul was on his way to inspect the batteries, which finally repulsed the Albanians who attacked Mitrovitz, when a sentry at the powder magazine deliberately shot M. Stcherbinat in the back. The sentry also fired at the consular military courier, but missed him. The other soldiers of the guard then hurried up and shot the Albanian sentinel.

Young Boy Is Badly Injured by Striking a Clothes Line.

(Special to The Gazette.)

Beloit, Wis., April 3.—Leo Trafford of this city, 16 years of age, is nursing a fractured jaw resulting from a collision with a telegraph wire this morning. The wire reached across his path at the height of his mouth and struck him with full force as he was running. A compound fracture resulted and it is feared that may lead to more serious consequences. All of the teeth in his upper jaw were torn loose.

Died in Africa

NEW DEFENDER PROMISES WELL

Isclen, Managing Owner, Says Its Lines Indicate Great Speed, When Sailing.

LAUNCHED ON 11TH

It Is Now Thought Englishmen Are Crowding Too Quickly Over New Shamrock.

(Special By Scripps-McIntae.) New York, April 3.—C. Oliver Isclen, the managing owner of the new cup defender, Reliance, said in an interview today that the new boat would be a marvel in lines and construction and would be very fast.

Crow Too Early Mr. Isclen said that he considered the fact that the Shamrock III won from the Shamrock I was not surprising and he thought that English yachtsmen were crowding too early in the game for good results.

Fast Boat The Reliance which will be launched on April 11 is built on far different lines than any boat hitherto used as a cup defender and it is thought that the new plans tried will increase the speed much more than was at first thought.

WILLIAM TRIPP SEES ROOSEVELT

Veteran Rock County Farmer Went to Madison to Meet the President.

Among the Rock county delegation who are in Madison today to see and hear President Roosevelt is William Tripp, the veteran, dyed-in-the-wool, republican from the town of Rock. Mr. Tripp was the first to haul up a McKinley and Roosevelt banner in Rock county during the campaign of 1900 and his flag flew from a tall flag staff in his front yard from the time of the Philadelphia convention which nominated the noted pair, until their election was assured.

Old Legislator Mr. Tripp was a member of the same legislature as the late United States Senator Philletus Sawyer in 1857 and was a member of the first assembly that held sessions in what is now the senate chamber of the capitol. Mr. Tripp is still a hale and hearty man, 83 years old, with a vivid recollection of the pioneers of the state, and a wonderful memory for personal incidents, introducing the names and peculiarities of Philletus Sawyer and the old war-horses of anti-bellum days. He is an intimate friend of Judge Lyon, president of the state board of control.

Hale and Hearty Mr. Tripp does not look his age, except for his snow-white hair and beard, and moves around with the freedom of a man of 60. During the time of the war he was noted for his loyalty and patriotism, and was extremely active in filling the ranks of the union armies. At that time he was a man of great influence in southern Wisconsin, and if it had pleased him to go deeply into politics, he might have achieved fame, but he preferred to remain a farmer, and in so doing has achieved a notable competence.

INDUCES MANY TO STAY AWAY

Few Janesville People Go to Madison Today to Hear President Roosevelt.

The cold weather this morning interfered very much with the turn-out from this city to go to Madison to see President Roosevelt. A large number had planned to take the early trains and spend the day in Madison sight seeing. A large majority of those who had intended to make the trip backed out this morning when they found that there had been a sudden drop in the temperature and that the day was liable to be cold and disagreeable. Very few people care about standing out in the cold all day even to see the president.

There were about twenty-five passengers on the St. Paul special when it left here but a great many were picked up at Milton Junction, Edgerton and Stoughton on the trip. The North-Western had about the same experience although both trains were pretty well loaded when they arrived at Madison. Later in the day there was a large crowd at both stations on their way to Milwaukee to be present at the reception in that city. A number of people went to Milwaukee yesterday and early this morning in order to get good stations where they could get a glimpse of the president when he passed by.

Several from this city were fortunate enough to secure seats at the banquet, United States District Attorney W. G. Wheeler, District Attorney W. A. Jackson and County Superintendent of Schools C. H. Hemmings being among the number.

Bandits Try to Wreck Train. Mariette, O., April 3.—A passenger train on the M. C. & C., the Ohio Central extension, was derailed at Napier, twenty miles from here, ostensibly the result of an attempt at train robbery.

REVIVALIST IS CONTINUING WORK

THE THURSDAY MID-WEEK SERVICES VERY LARGE.

INCREASING IN POPULARITY

His Glorious Word of God's Teachers, Hits the Spirit of His Listeners.

Barring the slightly diminished attendance caused by the first symptoms of a cold wave which reached the city yesterday, the plans of the committees in charge of the Biederwolf-Stout revival services for a mid-week Sabbath worked out into an unqualified success. The size of the gathering at the early sunrise rally surpassed the fondest hopes of those who arranged it, and from that time to the closing session, the greatest interest was manifested in the meetings.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening, according to the custom observed by Rev. Biederwolf and Prof. Stout, there will be no services. On Sunday afternoon there will be another grand mass meeting for men, held in the Congregational church.

A part of the address given by Rev. Biederwolf this afternoon, at Court Street Methodist church is reproduced as follows:

This Afternoon's Sermon

where he said, "In whom also having believed ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise which is the earnest of our inheritance unto the redemption of the purchased possession to the praise of his glory." In ancient days when a man bought a field when the transaction was made the purchaser received a handful of soil as an earnest or pledge that the whole field was to be his, and so what I have now is but the earnest of my inheritance, nothing differs in quality but only in quantity from what I shall have at the redemption hour of his purchased; and that he said we were sealed in Christ with the Holy Spirit. What does a seal do? Lift it up from the wax you have stamped and there upon the wax is its image and thus the Holy Spirit has come to be stamping upon me the image of the Lord Jesus. Christ as a prophecy of what I shall be when I shall be like Him when I see Him as He is.

Sanctification
"Talk about sanctification! After all that I have been able to become here and my life has not been altogether without victory, I have beheld as in a mirror the spotless perfection of my Christ and have felt like crying, "Depart from me for I am a sinful man," but what a promise is this—changed into His own image from glory to glory and when at last I stand in His presence full-statured and clear-eyed that transformation will be complete—a heart like His and a face like His and as I look with untrammelled vision into His eyes I shall see, reflected back no

MOVING BOOKS TO NEW LIBRARY

STEPS TOWARD OCCUPANCY TAKEN YESTERDAY.

COMPLETED BY MAY FIRST

It is Now Thought That Everything Will Be in Order by the Last of This Month.

First steps toward occupancy of the Carnegie library were taken yesterday. Half a dozen men, under the leadership of E. T. Fish, invaded the present library quarters, and before nightfall several dray loads of magazines, government publications, and works of documentary and official nature were removed from the position they have occupied in the balcony at the west end of the room now occupied. They were taken to one of the rooms on the ground floor of the new building.

Not Often Used
These books and unbound publications were all of a nature which only causes a slight demand. Judging from the dust which encumbered some of them, it has been months since they were last called for. It is not a longer period than that. They can readily be removed without being missed.

Well Known Industrial Commissioner of the Milwaukee Road, Goes to the Erie.

Louis Jackson, industrial commissioner of the Milwaukee road, has resigned his position, and will leave for New York about May 1 to take a similar position with the Erie Railroad company.

"The change was planned and carried out rather suddenly," he said, "and there were no more words exchanged than necessary. I received a telegram from President Underwood of the Erie lines, asking me to meet him in Chicago. I went there and he told me he wanted me to come to the Erie road. Although my associations have already been the pleasantest with the officers of the Milwaukee road, I considered that the terms offered were too good to be passed by, and said, 'I will come.' He said that no explanation was needed, as he knew all about me. The entire transaction occupied about three minutes. He mailed me a formal offer which I accepted, and then resigned my position with the Milwaukee road, asking Mr. Easting to let the resignation take effect as soon as possible before May 1. In some ways I am sorry to leave, as I have enjoyed my work, and liked my associates, and have gained many friends in Wisconsin.

"The Erie road is getting to be one of the principal lines in the country. The cities on the line are progressive, and make a promising field. The Erie has over 2,300 miles of road, 1,200 locomotives, 1,000 coaches, and 53,000 freight cars, and its gross income is over $10,000,000 a year. I will be located in a general office in New York city."

Mr. Jackson was born in Liverpool in 1856, and after serving five years apprenticeship in the freight and forwarding business there he came to America and located in Chicago, where he acted as car loading clerk for one of the big packing companies. He was later connected with the Burlington road, and took his position with the Milwaukee road in 1891.

W. H. Coppin.
William Henry Coppin was born in Oxbridge, Canada, Sept. 19, 1861. He died March 30, 1903, aged 43 years, 6 months and 11 days. His parents came to Belleville, Wis., when he was about 2 years of age. The family remained there about two years when they settled in Janesville. Mr. Coppin lived 23 years in this city. Fourteen years ago he removed to Milwaukee, where he resided at the time of his death. He was a trusted employee of the express company for twenty years. He was married in Mineral Point, May 11, 1892 to Miss Maria Jones. This happy union was blessed with two children, Madge and Arthur William, who with their mother, survive to sorrow deeply for their loss. Three brothers, John and Edward, both of Dennison, Texas, and Frank of Janesville. Two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Wilkerson, Mrs. Minnie Crouse, both of this city are living. His father and mother, two sisters and a brother preceded him to the other world.

Honesty Among Chinese.

Honesty is a prevailing virtue among most Chinamen. Some of them, in their native towns and cities, often leave their places of business unguarded while they go off for an hour or more. Should customers arrive in the meantime, they find the prices of goods plainly marked, select what they want, and leave the money for them.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, April 3, 1863.—Any hospital or other light stores which may be carried through as personal baggage, may be entrusted to A. P. Aldrich who will convey them to Company A, Capt. Ruger, 13th Wisconsin. Articles may be left at Dearborn's grocery store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets.

The reports from Vicksburg are not encouraging. Naval matters there have all gone wrong, from some cause. There appears to be a want of co-operation between the commanders. The lower Yazoo Pass expeditions under Porter and Sherman, have proven failures. What next? Time passes, the river is falling, hot weather approaches, and the commanding general must do something soon or abandon the enterprise.

It is now stated that the Indianola is in the hands of the rebels again, and has been repaired and in conjunction with other rebel gunboats, and rams it will attempt to capture Com. Farragut and his vessels below Vicksburg. It would be a consolation to get at the truth about the Indianola, even if it should prove to be against us.

By reference to our advertisements it will be seen that Geo. Kellogg advertises a good stock of fruit and ornamental trees, also a large variety of grape vines. A small expense and a little care bestowed upon them will enable every family to have a good supply of fruit and their ground ornamented with shrubbery. Mr. Kellogg can supply all who wish with all the different varieties and of good quality.

Mr. Sherman M. Booth will speak at the court room this evening. His subject is the "War and the State of the Country." Mr. Booth is a forcible speaker and will probably deliver a lecture well worth hearing.

The address which Rev. Biederwolf made last evening is given in part:

Eph. 5:13—"Be filled with the Spirit."

I do not believe that in passing from the seventh to the eighth chapter of Romans, Paul ever for one moment meant to imply that he had left the old nature and the old experience behind, but I do not believe in victory over sin and that the second verse of the eighth chapter of Romans is its law and that in the process of this freedom through the law of this spirit of life in Christ the law of sin and death does not pull down with its old strength as in the case of the hallooed instrument as in the case of a development that is continuous the power of the old law is weakened through every triumph of righteousness until weak and inert it does not rise up against us with its old time vigor.

Custom of Purchase

That was a great word of Paul's

where he said, "In whom also having believed ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise which is the earnest of our inheritance unto the redemption of the purchased possession to the praise of his glory."

In ancient days when a man bought a field when the transaction was made the purchaser received a handful of soil as an earnest or pledge that the whole field was to be his, and so what I have now is but the earnest of my inheritance, nothing differs in quality but only in quantity from what I shall have at the redemption hour of his purchased; and that he said we were sealed in Christ with the Holy Spirit. What does a seal do? Lift it up from the wax you have stamped and there upon the wax is its image and thus the Holy Spirit has come to be stamping upon me the image of the Lord Jesus. Christ as a prophecy of what I shall be when I shall be like Him when I see Him as He is.

Sanctification
"Talk about sanctification! After all that I have been able to become here and my life has not been altogether without victory, I have beheld as in a mirror the spotless perfection of my Christ and have felt like crying, "Depart from me for I am a sinful man," but what a promise is this—changed into His own image from glory to glory and when at last I stand in His presence full-statured and clear-eyed that transformation will be complete—a heart like His and a face like His and as I look with untrammelled vision into His eyes I shall see, reflected back no

Coming Attractions.

Frank L. Perley's very popular operatic comedy, "The Chaperons," which was seen here last season, will be the attraction at the Myers Grand April 22. This will be one of the most important offerings of the year as the organization is of more than ordinary good repute, and during the engagement in this city established an enviable reputation as one of the brightest and best of modern and musical comedies. "The Chaperons" enjoyed a very successful career last year, both in this city and elsewhere, his tour, being booked at the Myers Grand for April 17.

Tolstol's "Resurrection." Count Leo Tolstol's latest and most powerful study of the human emotions, has proven itself one of the great dramatic sensations of the day. Henry Britoff, the Russian scholar, speaking of the "Resurrection," says: "Resurrection is broad and deep and high as life itself. It is an ocean—the ocean of life—rocked by storm and lured to

Its long run during the hot weather at the New York theatre was one of the most surprising episodes of the metropolitan summer season. The piece as it will be given here, it is promised, will be identical with the New York presentation. All the original scenery from the brush of Joseph Physloc will be brought here and the elaborate wardrobe which was made by Madame Elsie Freisinger from costume designs by the poster artist, Archie Gun will be displayed by the company. In the cast will appear Walter Jones, Edd Redway, Edward Metcalf, Geo. K. Henery, Albert Farrington, Thos. Burton, Eva Tanguay, May Boley, Genevieve Day Jessica Duncan and Mae Stebbins together with the customary corps of "show girls" and chorus beauties.

An Excellent Attraction

The New Grand had people standing in the aisles before the curtain went up last night, on the opening performance of the Gaskell Stock Company. Manager Keuhl says it was the largest opening for a popular priced attraction in the history of the Turner Grand. The Gaskell Company is so far above the ordinary talent usually found in travelling combinations, that it was really a treat last night to witness their performance of "A Model Young Man," which was a most excellent comedy.

James O'Neill in "The Manxman" "Nothing succeeds like success," said Calne did not coin the phrase, but he may as well use it. The novelist came to America to see "The Eternal City" put on the stage and before he went away he had arranged to have "The Manxman" shown

SAYS CONTRACT IS STILL GOOD

Rockford Manager Claims He Rented Park from Klein in Good Faith.

Hugh Nicol of Rockford, manager of the Rockford base ball team, which is a member of the "Three I" league was in the city yesterday in the interests of the ball game at athletic park, scheduled for Woodmen's picnic day, June 4.

In regard to his contract for the use of the park for that day, Mr. Nicol says he has a straight contract from Mr. Klein for grounds and etc., and that he used no underhand means to secure it. He did not know that any other teams contemplated getting the park for that day he paid Mr. Klein his price for the park and thought everything all right until he heard Madison and Beloit were after the park.

The game which will be played here on Woodmen's day if the Rockford and the Bloomington teams are the contestants, will not be an exhibition game, but one of the championship games of the league series. Three games are scheduled to be played at Rockford on June 3rd, 4th and 5th, and the consent of the league will be secured to transfer the June 4th game to this city. Rockford team won the pennant last year and the Bloomington team is considered one of the strongest teams in the league this year and the game would probably be one of the best seen here for several ball players and this being one of the regular league series both would be anxious to win.

Neat and Stylish Easter Hat

This style hat is quite popular at present. In fact, it is over out of style. It, like all other pretty hats, attracts a great deal of attention, and the hair, of course, is scrutinized at the same time. Therefore, it is quite necessary that the hair should look well. A beautiful head of hair is much more admired than the finest hat ever made. If your hair is thin and falling, a few months' treatment with Danderine, the great hair tonic, will fully restore it and make it more beautiful than ever. If, on the other hand, it should be reasonably nice to begin with, just a few treatments of this great hair beautifier will make it nicer still. It gives new life and vigor to the hair and makes it grow thick, long, silky and glossy without changing its natural color a particle.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the KNOWLTON DANDELINE CO., Chicago, with their name and address and 10c. in silver or stamps to pay postage. PLATFORM

The following resolution adopted at the convention when the citizens ticket was endorsed is the platform of the campaign.

Resolved, that it is the sense of this convention, that the mayor and common council and the board of education of this city, should in every particular, be governed by the provisions of the charter under which the city is organized; and we demand that in all matters the requirements of the charter be strictly observed.
 Resolved, that strict economy in the administration of our city affairs is especially desired, and we demand of all city officials that business principles be observed, and a better system of bookkeeping and accounting adopted.

WHAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED

While reform democracy is busy asking fool questions, the public are satisfied to let nature take its course. The good work of the municipal league is recognized and fully appreciated.

The 300 men who were present at the city hall ready to back up with money any movement that the league might adopt, were neither school boys, politicians, nor obstructionists. The audience at the opera house was composed of the same class of men. They were taxpayers and good citizens, and they represented a constituency of 2800 strong.

The municipal league was organized for a purpose, and that purpose was to purify city government. It is apparent to the most casual observer that the influence of the league has been felt, from the day of its organization. The city hall was transformed and every city official became so virtuous that the ordinary routine of business was scanned with suspicion.

To satisfy public sentiment, suits were instigated against certain officials, and a call was issued for a grand jury. Just what the outcome of this litigation will be or how many parties may be involved time alone will determine.

The league was not organized for the purpose of punishing offenders, and whatever has been done or is being done along the line of investigation is simply incidental to its work, the aim of which is permanent reform.

The citizens ticket is the legitimate offspring of this reform movement. It has to do with the future and it should command the respect and support of every intelligent taxpayer. The ticket stands for good citizenship, and honesty and economy in the administration of city affairs. If the people are in earnest about reform, it will be elected by a majority that will silence all opposition. The municipal league has accomplished much, and the good work has but just commenced.

Every voter who is interested in municipal reform will realize the importance of casting his ballot next Tuesday for the citizens ticket. In some of the wards, the democrats have made no ward nominations and voters may be indifferent on this account. It should be remembered that the city ticket is at stake, and the fight will be made on the mayor. Every voter should be on hand.

For some reason, best known to himself, Edward Rotherham, the citizens candidate for Supervisor in the fifth ward, deemed it wise to join the ranks of democracy, and he will appear on that ticket next Tuesday. The law prevents a name appearing on two tickets, so Mr. Rotherham's name will not be on the citizens' ticket. As there is no other candidate, he will of course be elected.

HOW TO VOTE

It has been decided by a number of attorneys that the safest way to vote the citizens ticket, is to mark an x after each name on the ticket in the little square provided for that purpose. The names on this ticket are all placed there by individual nominations. If they were represented tatives of a party, then an x in the square over the ticket, would be a vote for the entire ticket, but they are not party nominees, and so there is a question as to whether the simple x would constitute a legal vote. It will be the safest way to mark after each name, and then there can be no question.

The state is honored today by the presence of the chief executive, an honor that any state should appreciate. The people of Janesville regret that they were unable to extend a welcome, which would have been most cordial had the train schedule permitted.

ANTHRACITE COAL

Shipments of anthracite coal in February are reported as amounting to 5,070,508 net tons, and for January 5,964,950 tons, making a grand total of 11,035,458 tons for the first two months of this year. For the corresponding months of 1902 there was shipped 8,279,391 tons, and of 1901, 9,306,994 tons. Shipments of coke from the Connellsville region for 8 weeks ending with February, were 77,732 cars this year, compared with 84,252 cars in 1902, and 81,497 cars in 1901. At St. Louis, February receipts of coal were 512,991 tons compared with 457,232 tons in February 1902. For the two months ending with February, 1,050,932 tons were received this year and 1,020,818 tons last year. At Chicago, coal and coke receipts for two months were 2,216,361 tons this year compared with 1,863,444 tons last year.

DOMESTIC TRADE

Domestic trade movements as reported in the February Summary of Internal Commerce, issued by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, show a general improvement over conditions at the corresponding date last year. In live stock, in movements of wheat and flour, in movements of corn, and in traffic on the Great Lakes, the figures showing the present conditions indicate a decided advance over the corresponding date of last year.

In live stock, the traffic operations at 5 western centers amounted during February to 47,151 cars, having advanced from 41,387 cars in February 1902 and 41,923 cars in February 1901. For the two months ending with February of this year, 99,202 cars were reported, compared with 88,237 cars to the end of February 1902, and 88,497 cars for the first two months of 1901.

Receipts of wheat at 8 markets to the end of February for the current crop year are reported as amounting to 201,509,288 bushels. A year ago the receipts were 185,320,746 bushels and for an equal period in 1901 a total of 163,184,469 bushels. There has therefore, been a progressive increase during these three seasons in the volume of grain received at these interior centers. The flour trade at Minneapolis during 1903 has thus far averaged much higher than during the preceding two years. The weekly production for the first nine weeks of 1903 averaged 303,046 barrels, compared with 289,401 barrels in 1902 and 249,983 barrels for a like period in 1901. Shipments show an equally marked enlargement.

AESOP'S FABLES AS REPEATED

THE HARES ARGUE FOR EQUALITY OF ANIMALS.

THE RECORDER INSINUATES

Organ of "Democracy Scarcely Believes What It Preaches, Yet Continues to Talk."

The Recorder begins another story with a joke on the Irish, which will no doubt be fully appreciated as a vote-getter just on the eve of election.

This is more than the Gazette cares to indulge, but there is a little slip from one of Aesop's fables which reads thus: "The hare harrangued the assembly and argued that all should be on an equality. The Hares made this reply: Your words O, hares; are good; but they lack both claws and teeth."

The enemies of reform in city affairs are more or less flippant in making insinuations, but overlook the fact that sometimes a man can ask for too much information upon a given point. Not until recently has the question been raised that the clerk of the board of education could not draw pay for services rendered in the capacity of executive officer.

That the public may have a clear understanding of the case, Section 2 of Chapter 9 of the revised city charter entitled "Public Schools," is here-with quoted as follows:

Section 2. The said school commissioners at large shall constitute a board to be styled the board of education of the city of Janesville. Said board shall appoint and hold stated monthly meetings, and a majority thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At the first meeting of said board in each year, the members thereof shall elect one of their number president and whenever he shall be absent a president pro tem may be appointed. They shall also appoint a clerk, and fix his compensation, which shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and he shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. The said commissioners shall not receive any compensation for their services.

The whole question turns upon the construction of the last paragraph of section 2, which prohibits a commissioner from receiving pay for his services. But does it prohibit a school commissioner from receiving pay for rendering service as the executive officer of the board independent of his duties as school commissioner?

This practice has been general in Wisconsin cities for fifty years and in the capacity of district clerk the law requires him to enumerate the school population each year.

In this city the list of commissioners and clerks who have filled these positions includes the best of legal talent during all these years, and to these should also be included a long line of able city attorneys not one of whom has ever raised the question of legality, so far as the records show. This doesn't legalize a wrong construction of the law, but neither does it show proof of recklessness in handling the people's money.

The clerk cannot pay out a cent of school money without authority from the board of education, nor is he authorized to purchase a dollar's worth of supplies or furnish employment without special instruction.

It is the Recorder and not the Gazette that raised this feeble issue for the purpose of making odious comparisons. The paper shows temper at being caught in its own trap and even now forgets that Channy Milwaukee is also in the swim for taking the school census.

No member of the board of education since the board was incorporated has ever been accused of dishonesty in office and if the Recorder will stop and think it will see that its insinuations reflect upon a very large number of men, both living and dead, none of whom ever had to settle twice.

The citizens' ticket was recommended at a meeting held in the opera house, which contained five times more voters than turned out to all the caucuses and conventions of the democracy put together. Still later it was endorsed by all the republican caucuses throughout the city and last of all by the city convention, without a dissenting vote. What more is wanted? How was it with the democratic ticket concerning which the people are so desperately interested?

BEWARE OF PICTURE AGENTS

Fake Representatives Are Not From Hildebrand.

Hildebrand, the artist, has no canvassers in the local field, and any persons representing that they are connected in any way with him are making false statements. It has come to Mr. Hildebrand's ears that citizens are being approached by persons purporting to be solicitors for him and it is against them he desires to warn the public. Mr. Hildebrand's work is all done at Frank D. Kimball's store. His wonderful reproductions of portraits has attracted more attention than any recent local happening. His artistic ability is drawing work to him from all about the county and on account of the urgent calls for his services he will remain another week in the city. If you happen to be one of those who have not seen Hildebrand at his work, look in at Kimball's large window the next time you are down town.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

On and after April first, 1903, no contract will be made for business local. The rate for this class of advertising will be ten cents per line for each and every issue of either Daily or Weekly. The Gazette adopts this policy for two reasons:

First: To improve the news columns of the paper. The first consideration of any newspaper is the reader; and its value to the reader depends entirely upon its popularity with the reading public. The Gazette has frequently flooded the composing room the last hour before the paper goes to press, and news is sacrificed to meet the demands of this class of business. Second: The Daily Gazette is rapidly extending its circulation throughout the county, giving the Janesville merchant an opportunity to talk to the farmer as well as the city customer, six days in the week. This means faster circulation and increased expense in producing a paper as well as increased value for advertising purposes.

The Gazette has also adopted what is known as the space rate for display advertising, and prices have been placed within the reach of all advertisers. The paper has long enjoyed a liberal patronage from home merchants, and it is in a position today to furnish better service than at any time in its history.

Why Independent Telephone Companies Succeed

It is not very difficult to find a reason for the unprecedented success of the independent telephone movement during the past ten years; its splendid advance has been due to a number of causes, not the least of them being the loyal support of the entire people of the United States, who have tired of the extortionate charges and poor service of the monopolies of the American Bell Telephone company. This erstwhile monopoly was under the impression it could fool all of the people all of the time and keep in undisputed possession of the telephone field, even after all the basic patents had expired; it had grown rich and lazy; puffed with its own importance, it loved usurious tribute with no regard for the people's rights; it gave indifferent service and charged the most unreasonable prices, and the people were expected to meekly submit. In this the Bell company overstepped itself. The people rebelled and threw off the Bell yoke. The independent telephone movement was the result. Giving good service, charging reasonable rates, building exchanges in the hamlets and villages, as well as in the towns and cities, the independents prospered; they did not try to fool the people; they offered telephone service within the reach of the artisan and laborer; they connected the farmer with his neighbor, and both of them with the surrounding towns and villages; they did not have to pay excessive royalties or earn dividends on watered stock, but were satisfied with a fair return on the actual investment; they acted fairly and earned the confidence of the people, gave good service at moderate rates and brought the telephone to its present sphere of usefulness. These are but a few of the reasons why independents succeed.—From "Telephone" for April.

Mrs. Z. Schnell

The remains of the late Mrs. Z. Schnell arrived in the city this morning from Walla Walla, Washington, and were taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. S. Baines on North Jackson street. The funeral was held from the Baines residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon the services being conducted by the Rev. Robert C. Denison, pastor of the First Congregational church. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery. The pallbearers were F. S. Baines, Charles Baines, Albert Schnell, T. S. Nolan, Herman Buchholz, and S. M. Fisher.

John Stendes

John Stendes, one of the old and respected citizens of this city passed away at 12 o'clock today at his home, 424 South Jackson street at the advanced age of 77 years. He had been failing for some time, his death being caused by a general breaking down of his system caused by old age. He leaves surviving him two sons, William and Ferdinand and one daughter, Miss Minnie. The funeral announcement will be given later.

Paid His Fine: Carl Johnson, sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or spend six months in the county jail by Judge Booth of Beloit for an assault on Foreman Williams of the Gaston works, secured the money necessary to pay the fine and costs and was released by Sheriff Appleby and returned to Beloit.

NO LIGHTS IN THE "ELYSIAN"

PRESIDENTIAL TRAIN DARK, SAVE ONE CAR.

REPORTERS WERE STILL BUSY

Crews Were Changed at This Station—Men Guarded Every Switch and Crossing on Division.

When Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, passed through Janesville at 2:45 this morning, there was no tumultuous crowd in waiting at the depot to greet him. Members of the city police force, representatives of the city press, and one or two others, making a total of perhaps a dozen, shivered in the darkness as the special, bearing the nation's executive, halted at the North-Western station for between four and five minutes while division officials on the train were changed.

About twelve minutes in advance of the presidential train, a pilot train came through the city, bearing a roadmaster, bridge and road foreman, and telegrapher foreman, all alert to discover any defect in the road. Its crew was changed here, at the head of the division, and Conductor Irving Mills of Baraboo took the train.

Crews Were Changed

Conductor W. F. Frenz took the place of the conductor who had brought the train from Chicago. Conductor William H. Johnson, of the Pennsylvania road, has been in control of the train since it left Washington, and will continue in that position throughout the trip, but at each division of each road over which the train is taken, a pilot conductor who is familiar with the route is placed at his disposal.

Superintendent R. A. Cowan accompanied the train from this city to Madison. Engineer Buskirk presided in the locomotive, and he was accompanied by Travelling Engineer Williams.

Every switch and crossing on the road between this city and Madison was guarded by a man in the employ of the North-Western company. The same rule had been observed from Chicago to this city.

Magnificent Special

When the presidential train of six magnificent coaches arrived at 2:45 this morning, prompt on schedule time, the only light visible was in the car occupied by the press representatives, telegraphers, stenographers, and photographers. Several of the newspaper men were engaged at that late hour in desperately grinding out page after page of "copy" for the dailies and news agencies they represent.

The train is superior to any which has borne a presidential party. It was equipped and furnished by the Pennsylvania road. No modern improvements are lacking. It is lighted by electricity. In the order in which the train is made up it consists of a baggage car, two buffet cars, "Atlantic," a dining car, the sectional sleeper "Senegal," the compartment sleeper "Texas" and the president's own car "Elysian."

On the Train

In the party accompanying President Roosevelt are Secretary Loeb, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Surgeon General Rixey and John Burroughs, the poet and naturalist, who will explore Yellowstone park with the president, and a number of newspaper, photographers, telegraphers and stenographers.

No pains have been spared to make the president's arduous sixty-day trip as comfortable as possible. His private car represents the highest achievement in that line. There are three staterooms, a dining room in two sections, a kitchen and servants' quarters, and an observation parlor. The most skilled chef in the employ of the road cooks the president's meals, and gray-headed Spencer Murray, the waiter who has served every president that has taken an extended trip in the past two decades, is accompanying the nation's chief.

GALA DAY AT STATE CAPITAL

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD GREETED THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

PRESIDENT'S 2-HOURS' WORK

Roosevelt Accomplished Wonders During His Short Stay in Madison.

(By Staff Correspondent.) President Roosevelt arrived in Madison this morning from Chicago at 4 o'clock. He remained in his car until 9 o'clock and then began a programme of two hours before he left for Milwaukee.

There was an address by the president to the legislature in the assembly chamber at which the state officers, supreme court judges and federal officials were present. There was also a speech from a stand at the east side of the capitol, followed by a reception to legislators and officials in the governor's office. Gov. La Follette and Mayor John W. Groves assisting the president in the reception. The capitol was decorated more elaborately than since the visit of President McKinley four years ago.

Decorations

The assembly chamber, usually so barren, was transformed into a splendid decorated hall, where potted plants, cut flowers, and bunting concealed everything that is not pleasing to the eye and adorned those that are. Streamers of red, white and blue bunting ran from the railing and pillars in the gallery to the center of the dome over the chamber, giving the effect of a grand canopy. This work was all done under the supervision of Sergeant-at-Arms A. W. Anderson of the assembly.

The Work Done

The work of making all arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the presidential party was well taken care of and Sergeant-at-Arms Anderson of the assembly was a most busy man all this morning before the speeches began and yesterday afternoon answering questions and refusing applications for tickets of admission to the capitol while the president was inside.

Doors Locked

While President Roosevelt was inside the capitol all the outside doors were locked and no one was admitted except by card. These cards had been distributed by members of the legislature, each one receiving four tickets apiece. This limited the crowd in the assembly chamber to eight hundred which was deemed all that could be safely accommodated.

Scene on Streets

From early this morning the streets were crowded with excited people who wished to catch a sight of the president. Fakirs sold all manner of badges and trinkets and a majority of the stores were decorated with gay bunting and flags. Students were much in evidence and many were at the depot early to catch the first sight of the chief executive.

At eleven o'clock the train pulled out for Milwaukee and as it drew away from the cheering crowd the stirring "Oh, Rah, Rah, Wis-con-sin," was heard on all sides.
